The Twelve Invitations: Creating a New Spiritual Paradigm for Your Life and Work

Quick Look: Weekend program (6:00 PM Friday - 3:00 PM Sunday) / $375.00

OVERVIEW

The Twelve Invitations offers you suggestions for creating and committing to a spiritual platform for your life, your relationships, and your work.

There is a story behind this program. The story is worth sharing as it can bring you comfort and peace of mind even in the most tragic of moments. Even in the most fearful moments. It can remind you of who you are, of why you are here, and what you are capable of being. While the story is worth hearing, the 12 invitations are the most important aspects of this program. Where the story is a but a lighthouse, each invitation is a ship upon which to sail the seas of life. The invitations provide you with the oars, mast, maps, and sail to reach your destination but it does not reveal your destination. That is your task, your decision. No one can decide what it is but you. Combined, the invitations render you invulnerable, peaceful, and more conscious with each passing day. Or if you prefer, you can continue to remain asleep and unconscious...what we refer to as the unemployed architect. While you cannot fail and you will one day in one lifetime wake up, you can sure waste a lot of time and experience a great deal of pain in the meantime. This need not be.

The real joy of the soul is not the gratification of shallow, inconsequential desires but the realization of its true Self, and in doing so, brings heaven to earth.
